Hope 4 Women International Dress a Girl Around the World! Parade Float

We had so much fun decorating and entering our Hope 4 Women/Dress a Girl float in the local parade! We passed out candy, a few t-shirts, and Dress a Girl beach balls! We included invitations to our local Family Fun Day and our Hope 4 Women Second Hand Shop! We're already thinking of ways to improve our float for next year!

Did you enter a Dress a Girl float in a parade or set up a booth at a fair?

WOMEN SPONSORSHIP!!

Esther dropped out of school in primary 5 because her father died and her mother couldn't pay the school fees. She married a peasant farmer and they had four children. Her husband died of HIV/AIDS and Esther has been living with it as well. She takes ARV's and remains well.

She'd like to raise animals for profit and hopes that when she is sponsored she can do so. Thus enabling her to be independent

DRESS A GIRL NEWS

In Loving Memory of Myrna Ann Smith (Kraegel) of Addison, IL. April 22, 1939 – June 30, 2025

For 86 beautiful years, the world was graced by the gentle presence of Myrna Ann Smith

Myrna was the kind of person who lit up a room not by commanding attention, but by offering it — fully and lovingly. Fierce in faith, rich in compassion, and unwavering in her dedication to doing things right, she was the epitome of Mark Twain's "It is never wrong to do the right thing."

We at Dress a Girl wish to remember Myrna and her role as a faithful Dress a Girl volunteer and thank her for a life well lived. May she rest in peace.

Our Uganda partner, Pastor Ruth wrote: "Our beloved sister in the Lord Peruth Macho has gone home to be with Jesus.

She has been our Women's leader at Smile Africa over the years and impacted the lives of many women in different ways.

We will miss her love, strong but calm voice and a smile that gives you confidence that all is well.

Please pray for her dear children, grandchildren and loved ones, Rest in Glory my dear sister, Macho Peruth"

We recently received this note and photos from Honduras! I am the District Governor of Rotary District 6980 and our partnership with Dress a Girl. We sent 500 dresses to Honduras! Here are some of the photos from the Rotary Club of Lake Nona. The Rotary Club of Lake County Golden Triangle were great to coordinate this project.

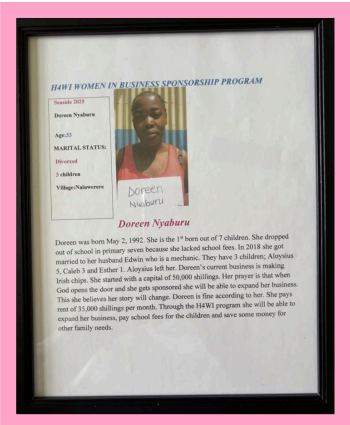

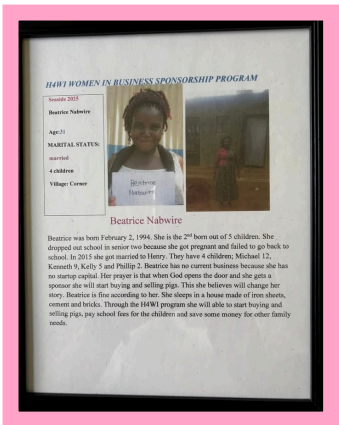

We are so grateful for all you do — especially your incredible partnership in helping a young girl's mission to provide dresses to these beautiful children in Honduras. Your generosity, dedication, and kindness are making a real difference in so many lives. 💖

Together, we're spreading joy, hope, and love — one dress at a time

Dress a Girl Southwest Missouri Writes:

- We're overjoyed to share the incredible news that the collections from our June Work Days have enabled us to sponsor 🙌 remarkable women, Beatrice and Doreen, from Uganda, through the H4WI program! The generosity of our three DAG groups has opened doors to a brighter future for these two individuals, who will now have the opportunity to overcome poverty, disease, and low self-worth, and build successful businesses. Let's surround Beatrice and Doreen with love, support, and daily prayers! ❤️🙏 Thank you ladies for changing the destinies of Beatrice and Doreen and their families!

Jenny Herzog, who has faithfully sponsored a number of women was recently in Uganda.

She writes:

“I love spending time with the ladies I’ve sponsored throughout the years in Hope 4 Women’s program. They are so inspirational. Listening to their stories—they have overcome unspeakable hardships and now they are thriving, running their own businesses and supporting their families. We enjoyed a nice lunch at the hotel and time sharing about our lives. We prayed and worshipped. My favorite part was throwing nuts into their mouths and we just giggled like teenagers. I like to buy a small gift and usually get something practical. This year, I asked what is something these precious ladies would love to have, but never buy for themselves. Beth, the Director, said a nice bag! She was able to order them for me and the ladies were thrilled. They said they were going to sleep with them as pillows.”

Thank you Jenny for having such a heart for the women of Uganda and for touching and changing so many lives! We appreciate you!

Hope 4 Kids International, our brother organization sponsored a spa day while a team was in Uganda recently. They had an afternoon of joy as they washed women’s feet, painted their nails and gave them beauty treatments. Showing how much they care is what H4WI is all about! A heart for the broken, the forgotten and the rejected. Thank you for your great leadership and example!
