Hope 4 Women International Dress a Girl Around the World!

Pearl Blackburn, our Oregon/Washington ambassador wrote:

“One of our long time Dress a Girl seamstresses, Irene, from the Seattle, Washington group passed away on October 21st. She was an excellent seamstress but also hilarious with a keen sense of humor.

She lived in assisted living and continued to sew. She made one peasant dress in a size 6 that we all called the Irene special. She started sewing for Dress a Girl about 6 years ago and at times made one dress a day. She made over 600 dresses and was very happy whenever she spotted a photo of a child wearing a dress she made.

Irene also did a presentation to the assisted living group to show what she did every day in her apartment. Her presentation was very well received and actually inspired other residents to maybe start sewing again. I learned many residents when they move into assisted living, keep their sewing machine in a closet. Many of us have a close attachment to our sewing machines.

There is a plan to honor Irene this Spring at an all day sewing event to make the 50 or so dress rolls she had in her apartment that she was not able to make. “ Thanks Pearl for sending this in. Please accept our heartfelt sympathies. We look forward to hearing more in the Spring of your all day sewing event and of course we want pictures!

WOMEN SPONSORSHIP!!

Mary was forced to drop out of school because her father had a negative attitude toward educating girls. She married a peasant farmer and had nine children. She has no funds to start up a business but once she's sponsored she expects to cook and sell food.

She believes that with her business she will be able to afford the necessities and receive medical treatment for back and stomach pains.

If you'd like to sponsor Mary please contact lisa@h4wi.org

DRESS A GIRL

We often hear from seamstresses of Dress a Girl members passing on and how they loved sewing for Dress a Girl.

Mary, from Rhode Island wrote to us about her friend, Diane who recently passed away from breast cancer.

Mary had these dresses, made by Diane and mailed them to us at headquarters.

These dresses are beautifully and carefully made by Diane and we will make sure they are passed on to girls in need.

Although we didn't know Diane, we so appreciate knowing about her and give our heartfelt condolences to her family and friends. She sounds like a lovely person and is surely missed by those who feel she was taken way too soon.
