- 5) Looking Forward!
- 6) Uganda Trip!

Our 3rd Annual Family Fun Day

We opened our doors to the community and offered them a family fun day with free hotdogs, chips, and freeze pops! We had bounce houses, games and offered baked goods and Lemme boba drinks! Lemme boba donated all the tips plus one dollar a drink back to Hope 4 Women! So awesome! We also gave out dress a girl dresses to the girls and bouncy balls to all kids! We're grateful to the Hansen Foundation for providing funds for this event! Our thrift store was open and everything in the store was 50% off! It was a great day!

WOMEN SPONSORSHIP!!

Joyce was forced to drop out of school at an early age because her parents couldn't afford to pay school fees. She married a bicycle repair man and they had five children. Six Years ago he died abruptly leaving her to fend for herself and their five children. .She currently has no business because she lacks start up capital. She believes once she is sponsored she can raise and sell vegetables, enabling her to pay school fees and other essentials for her children .

Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after widows and orphans in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world. James 1:27For $36 a month for one year you can sponsor Joyce Awor or another woman in need. Please contact Lisa@h4wi.org to sign up! today!

RACHEL'S HUSBAND AND LIFE—TIME SUPPORTER, ROBERT, TURNED 90!!

YIKES! How can Robert be 90??? Rachel, with the help of her family and friends, hosted a party at their Pink Country Life home. A lot of people showed up to honor Robert. We ate chicken salad, egg salad, bologna, cake, brownies, cookies and much more! His nieces gave him a piñata!

Robert doesn't need a thing and asked that people contribute to Hope 4 Women/Dress a Girl in his honor. You can still do that! Robert has done many projects as a volunteer. He started victory gardens throughout Uganda and the Congo! He's sponsored many women over the years and has always been there to show his support!

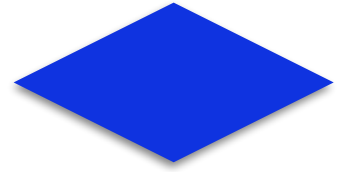

Thank you Robert for the sacrifices you've made and continue to make over the years! We love and appreciate you more than you know.

A FUN WAY TO USE UP THOSE FABRIC SCRAPS!

I found this super cute boho lampshade on gardenandcrafty.com and thought you might enjoy making this from your many fabric scraps.

Materials Needed: Old lampshade frame

Scrap fabric strips (about 1" wide x 18" long)

Optional: lace pieces, ribbon, or yarn

Scissors or pinking shears

Hot glue gun (optional)

Step-by-step Guide:

Step 1: Remove any fabric from your old lampshade if needed, keeping just the frame or lace base for attaching your strips

Step 2: Cut your scrap fabrics into long strips. Don't worry about uniformity as the variety adds to the charm.

Step 3: Loop or tie each strip onto the lower edge of the lampshade. Then alternate colors and textures to keep it visually interesting.

Step 4: Layer in lace or sheer ribbons for extra movement and light diffusion. You should adjust lengths if needed for a tiered effect.

Tip: If your lamp gives off too much light, you can add a layer of fabric to the inside of the shade or use a low-watt bulb for a cozy glow.

You'll also be seeing us using more QR codes such as this one directing you to the Dress a Girl Around the World website. Open your camera on your phone and hold it over the code and click on the link when it pops up. You will be taken directly to the website.

Here's a Hope 4 Women/Dress a Girl video you can watch on YouTube. Open your phone camera and hold it over the code. When the link pops up click on it. It will take you to another link that says, "Watch on YouTube" and there you go!

Watch for more codes that will take you directly to our revised guidelines for making dresses and revised ambassador guidelines. We're excited to move forward and make our website easier as well as all our materials.

I hope you enjoy it and find these things convenient and useful.

HOPE 4 WOMEN/DRESS A GIRL TRIP!
