DRESS A GIRL YOUTH AMBASSADOR HAS BEEN TO FASHION WEEK 7 TIMES!

Ruby has been a faithful volunteer teen ambassador for our Dress a Girl Around the World program since 2017. With the help of her mom she started a group at her church and the ladies created beautiful dresses for our program. Their first batch of dresses went to Haiti.

Ruby continued sewing with the church group and even got to go to New York to model in a fashion show.

In 2019 she presented some of the dresses she designed for Dress a Girl during New York Fashion Week. From there she was asked to present at Madison Fashion Week in Madison, Wisconsin. A designer from the Philippines took her dresses to the Philippines and distributed them to girls at a local orphanage. Ruby's group continued to make dresses for the Philippines. One of the ladies who attended Ruby's group was so passionate about what they were doing she took it back to her church and started a group there!

Ruby writes: "Fast forward to now, where I have been attending New York Fashion Week with Dress A Girl for 7 years now. Looking back on the years as a senior getting ready to graduate, I could not be more grateful to this organization for allowing me to help. It has been such a great experience getting involved in Dress A Girl Around The World and I can't wait to someday go on a mission trip to actually see the faces of the little girls who get to wear these dresses. Seeing some of the pictures posted from the trips makes me know just how special this work is. I feel very blessed to be a youth ambassador with Dress A Girl Around The World and to have had the opportunity to work with everyone who I have."

We are so proud of Ruby and all her accomplishments. I love that she caught the passion for this when she was just nine years old! She's an inspiration to girls around the world. We can see through her leadership of her sewing group and her igniting the passion in others that she is a great influencer!

John “George” Etz

We were saddened to hear that the husband of long time Dress a Girl volunteer, Danene Etz passed away suddenly. He was known to many as John or George but his most favorite name was Dampy. He loved his wife, daughters and granddaughters very well. He always brought so much joy, fun, humor, laughter, craziness and big love to each day. John never met a stranger and was a very generous and loving man. He truly loved the Lord and shared that passion with others.

We were privileged to meet John on a couple of occasions when he and Danene visited our headquarters here in Iowa.

Our deepest sympathies go out to Danene, his beloved family and precious grands who will miss him greatly. May they find comfort in the knowledge that John is with our Savior and those of us who have faith in Jesus will see him again one day.

From the Desk of Rachel!

I appreciate you all so very much! Thank you for partnering with us in sponsoring women and in dressing girls around the world. It's so fun to see the growth and to have my daughter Lisa and granddaughter Jordan so invested in this organization.

I continue to lead Hope 4 Women/Dress a Girl and work part time as a lay pastor. I enjoy preaching and being with the people. And of course—the kids!

I am also available to speak at Hope 4 Women/Dress a Girl events and to meet all the wonderful volunteers who serve women and girls around the world. Please contact jordan@h4wi.org for details.

Thank you for being here! If you have news to share please let us know so we can pass the news on to others through our monthly newsletter.

May God bless you richly while we walk together on this journey toward doing His will. Much love, Rachel
